

Senate bill No. 326, "An act to amend articles 122, 129, 137 and 138 of 'an act to adopt and establish the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas,' passed March 17, 1879, and to amend articles 130 and 132 of the Revised Civil Statutes," etc., was taken up, with the objections of his Excellency, the Governor, together with the following report from Judiciary Committee No. 1, which were read in full:

COMMITTEE ROOM,
AUSTIN, April 12, 1883.

Hon. G. R. Gibson, Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Your Judiciary Committee No. 1, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 326, entitled "An act to amend articles 122, 129, 137 and 138 of 'an act to adopt and establish the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas,' passed March 17, 1879, and to amend articles 130 and 132 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, as amended and approved April 17, 1879, and to add article 130a," have carefully examined the same, and instruct me to report the same back with the recommendation that the Senate amendments be concurred in.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ACKER, Chairman.

The report of the committee was adopted, and Upon motion of Mr. Frymier, the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days was suspended, and

The bill was placed on its third reading by the following vote:
